What:

On Thursday, October 6 at Wynwood Kitchen & Bar, United Way Miami Wine & Food Festival will present Sake at Sundown, a unique sake experience that benefits United Way of Miami-Dade's work in education, financial stability and health. Sake and tapas join the festival's repertoire in an event where guests will enjoy a formal sake tastings paired with samplings from WKB's new menu, amidst its open-aired art park.

Discover just how versatile sake can be with the help of special guest, Morgan Hartman of Vine Connections, one of the world's few Level II Sake Specialists. Hartman will guide guests through each of the three premium sake tastings, while Chef Miguel Aguilar showcases exquisite samples from his new menu of Latin-flavored dishes. Hot or cold, learn the tricks of pairing sake for all occasions.
