

OCEAN DRIVE

April 10, 2011

Wine and Food Fest Picks

Where to indulge during the 16th Annual United Way Miami Wine and Food Festival.

Take part in the epicurean delight that is the 16th Annual United Way Miami Wine and Food Festival. The fest features four days of top sommeliers, notable chefs, and prestigious wineries and breweries delivering the best of South Florida's cuisine scene.

The 2010 Annual United Way Miami Wine and Food Festival

During the "Best in Glass Month" event, award-winning wines, chosen from top sommeliers in a blind wine tasting competition, will be showcased at select restaurants (through April 14), including Altamare, Azul, Db Bistro Moderne, The Forge and more.

If an icy brew is what you crave, head to the "Brews & Bites" event, where you can sample beers from around the world at dozens of different tasting stations and nibble on beer-friendly bites from local eateries. Check out our cant-miss events, below.

April 14: Taste & Toast. Merrick Park, Coral Gables

April 15: Food, Friends and Fun. InterContinental Miami 100 Chopin Plaza

April 16: Cellar-bration. InterContinental Miami, 100 Chopin Plaza

April 17: Brews & Bites. Mary Brickell Village Shopping Center

—MICHAELA MANNING

READ MORE: United Way Miami Wine and Food Festival, dining, Db Bistro Moderne, The Forge, Altamare, Azul